FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--"On the Road Again" is the rule rather than the exception as the Eastern Illinois women's softball team takes to the back roads of Middle America again this weekend to take on Gateway Conference rivals Southwest Missouri (13-12) and Wichita State (4-11). EIU has played 16 of its first 18 games on the road in 1985. The Lady Panthers sport a 12-6 record overall and a 1-3 mark in the circuit. Both the Lady Bears and the Shockers had four conference games rained out last weekend.

"These four games this weekend are crucial to our finishing in the upper-division of the league," states EIU head coach Deanna D'Abbraccio. "We were disappointed with the way we played last weekend and I don't expect the same results this weekend. Errors at crucial points in the game have been killing us all season."

Freshman outfielder Angel Lendvay (Mundelein) has been on a tear for the Lady Panthers this season. The converted shortstop is leading the team in hitting with a lofty .471 average. She also has accounted for three doubles, three triples and nine RBI.

"Angel has been playing extremely well for us this season," lauds D'Abbraccio. "She has a good knowledge of the game and works hard to improve her abilities. I'm pleased with her progress thus far. She has made a big contribution to our program this year."

Shortstop Sara Karcher (Wayne City) is second on the club in hitting. The hard-working freshman is batting at a .422 clip with 19 hits in 45 at bats. She had a perfect 4 for 4 games against league-rival Northern Iowa last weekend.

The Lady Panther pitching reigns are in good hands--like All-State. Freshman Zam Mogill (Streator) and senior Shelly Eddington (Brighton/Southwestern) head the mounds corps. Mogill sports a 6-2 record with a nifty 0.48 ERA. She has two shutouts and one no-hitter to her credit in eight decisions.

The versatile Eddington is as proficient on the mound as she is at the plate. She has a 6-4 record and a 0.94 earned run average. Eddington also is hitting .410 with two round-trippers and eight RBI.

One of the bright surprises this season has been the play of freshman Tammi Patton (Decatur/Eisenhower). The utility infielder and pitcher has a four-game hitting streak since taking over at second base for the injured Jan Wamser. Patton clubbed a three-run home run to lead Eastern to a 6-3 win over league-opponent Drake.
